

MEDICAL EMERGENCY SUPPLIES AND MEDICATIONS

Emergency medical management equipment should contain the following items:

**Some medications listed below should only be administered by HCP with ACLS training*

	Essential	Recommended
Medications	Albuterol inhaler Diphenhydramine injection Epinephrine 0.1 mg/mL (1 mg/10mL) OR epinephrine auto-injector 0.3 mg Solu-Medrol injection	Adenosine injection Atropine sulfate Chewable ASA Dextrose 50% injection Insta glucose Nitroglycerine Ondansetron injection Sodium bicarb injection
IV supplies	0.9% Sodium chloride flush (10mL) 0.9% Sodium chloride bag (500mL)	IV admin set IV start kit IV catheter Non-DEHP cath/extension set 5% dextrose bag
Airway	Barrier mask for CPR Ambu Bag	Nasopharyngeal/oral airway suction
Emergency medical management	Infusion sites of care should have a standard operating procedure in place instructing infusion site of care staff how emergency events should be managed, including appropriate contacts (911, physician, etc.), ACLS protocol and any follow-up activities.	